Dave Murphy Performed at August 24, 2011 Maywood Station Museum Open House/Concert

Dave Murphy and his band performed a live concert as part of the Maywood Station Museum Backyard Summer Concert Series Sponsored By Park Ave Acura on the Maywood Station Museum grounds at the Wednesday evening, August 24, 2011 Open House. The museum was also open during the concert and featured a variety of exhibits, artifacts and photographs on display.

Dave Murphy is an acclaimed songwriter and recording artist who performed collection of original songs with his band from his five albums. Elements of his influences - Neil Young, Bob Dylan, The Byrds and Roger McQuinn can be felt in his music. His most recent album, Yellow Moon, was released this past spring to rave reviews. Starting in 1998, Dave released his first album, a self-produced effort titled Under the Lights. The album garnered a prestigious "Top 12 DIY" pick in the December 1999 issue of Performing Songwriter Magazine. Dave subsequently released four more albums, all on his own Phoenix Night label. He has received awards and rave reviews, performed at hundreds of venues across the country from the renowned Kerrville Folk Festival in Texas to the intimate Tin Angel in Philadelphia. He's shared the stage with some of the world's great Americana artists including Suzanne Vega, Slaid Cleaves, Alejandro Escovedo and Steve Forbert. His music has been featured on New York City's WFUV 90.7FM, where he has appeared on John Platt's show. The new Yellow Moon album is loaded with moments from a particular intimate relationship. All the invigorating and demoralizing parts are there and the voice has a resignation, swelling and painful, through different turns, but always with a subtext of hope.
